

Episode 2 Downloadable: 8 STEPS TO PLANNING FOR ELECTRIC VEHICLES (EVs)

Why Do We Need to Plan for EVs?

As batteries become lighter and cheaper and the need for renewable energy becomes more critical, plug-in electric vehicles are being produced in higher numbers with many manufacturers planning to require all new vehicles be plug-in electric within the next 10-15 years. As a result, we have prepared 8 steps to plan for EVs, either within or outside of long-range transportation plans required of metropolitan planning organizations.
